

Keitelman Gallery

TEFAF - MAASTRICHT MARCH 15-25, 2012

BOOTH/STAND 504

Joan Miró – 1945 – Ceramic – 16 x 21,5 cm

For the 19th consecutive year, the Keitelman Gallery will participate in TEFAF.

A special selection for a special art fair.

This year, the human being will be the main theme of the stand, with works ranging from Joan Miró's poetic abstraction (drawings and ceramics) through to an awesome, imposing sculpture by César.

Evsá Model sublimates the loneliness of being, while Penck strives to find the equation for it. More recent artists rather choose to encapsulate the being in a detail, either enlarged and pixellated as with Claude Cortinovis, or endlessly scrutinized as in Marcela S. Nelson's miniature portraits.

César – Hommage à Léon – 1964 – Bronze – 242 x 104 x 68 cm